Top Left—Donna Engle cheers the team along. Top Right—Jerry Howard leads the wrestling team to a victory. Middle—"Now where's that little bitty kidney", asks Dean Dodge. Middle Right—Chris O'Masta does her best at typing. Lower Left—Bill Supernant shows off his personality. Lower Middle—Deb Wittgren asks, "Am I doing it right?" Lower Right—Karen Vendramin wonders what the odor is. Bottom Left—Mr. & Mrs. Roller head home after a long hard day. Bottom Middle—Todd Donnelly shoots for a basket.

Pic. L-R, Oh, come on girls! Time to stop the gabbing and get to work. Future Med-Students work on their next patient. Center, "Hey, it's not as easy as you said" cries Randy Bernhardt. R-Side, Scott Miller calmly awaits his next victim. Bottom, L-R, Putting nylons on is harder than it looks. Hanover's own Beethoven, Dan Shreiber practices before an empty house. Denny Shroeder proves Hanover's food isn't all that bad by eating lunch in the high school cafeteria. Miss Grady shows her surprise as a Yearbook photographer snaps a quick sneaky picture.

Pic. Top, L-R, Mr. Roller flashes a sinister smile to his weary shorthand students. Mr. Holmes admires his new workshop with pride.

L-Side, Wildcat cheerleaders prove that spirit is not dead at all at Hanover. Middle, "Now if it can only even out on this side," says Glen Rietman.

Pic. L-R, Mr. Sills plays peek-a-boo with our yearbook photographer. Kerry Drake and Tim Swafford discuss the great facilities in the new library. Sharon Zahora in one of her dramatic portrayals of acting in "Dirty Work at the Crossroad". Middle L-R, Jayne Mantel shows that she does have sex-appeal smile. Chris Cieslak takes time out from French II for a quick snapshot. Hanover's basketball ace Bob Gross works off a sweat during practice! Bobbie Zagrovich seems to be holding up one of Hanover's walls. Bottom L-R, Michelle Espy thinks she's the next super woman. Sue Sivka shows up for work on time!

Top L-R, Deb Sorschak and Sue Shoemaker "study shorthand." "Do you like my niece?" says Deb Kretz. Lynette Proud and Mary Joan Torrence are having a good time in the new gym. Middle, Jerry Howard readies for the shake down. Jayne Mantel caught in the middle of a discussion. Glenda Wall lingers in the commons area. Bottom L-R, Sleeping on the job are Doug Howard and Chuck Gibson. Treat her like your own now, Dan!" "Come on Dave, get that jump!"

Top L-R, Students really age throughout the years at Hanover, especially in plays. "You looking for me?" says Dirk Dodge. Students enjoy working on art projects.

Middle L-R, "Aw, come on Bill McKee don't be shy." "Playing Peek-a-Boo behind the machines, eh boys?"

Pic. R-Side, Sharon Zahora is still trying to figure out what she's doing in French II. Al Davis and Bruce Garrett discuss a funny article in their Government class. Middle, L-R, Seniors who think they know it all show off their Hanover spirit. Jim Harold sheepishly looks for a helping hand in setting up the Prom decorations. Hanover's 3 pitching aces—Al Davis, Ray Kerstell, and Dan Engle proudly show off their trophy won in the Grant Park Baseball Tournament. The bodiless mascot rests from the tedious workout after the season basketball games.

Pic. Top L-R, Two days before prom, juniors work swiftly to finish decorations. "Up, up, and away" says Tina Foreman. The Walthen's perform feats of difficult gymnastics. L-Side, Concentrate DeeDee, Concentrate. Middle L-R, Patty Woodburn puts her mind to studying for a change. Jill Crilley does polish push-ups. Bottom L-R, Cathy Neary studies her shorthand in "Private" Chris Loman and Mike Stecyk still argue that 2 + 2 is 5.

DIRTY WORK AT THE CROSSROADS

"Dirty Work at the Crossroads" was about a girl who is about to get swept off her feet by a nasty villain. She finally marries the man whom she should have been married to in the first place (by the way, he's in prison). The man and woman have a little girl. Only after a long ordeal, everybody lives happily ever after.

One of the cast members made this statement about the play: "I think it was a little strange for the high school kids to like. I really enjoyed doing it because it was a new experience for me. Though you can't have everything the same or else hardly anyone would like it."

The cast consisted of: Jim Wislocki, Rose Wood, Sharon Zahora, Stephanie Wood, Sherri Underwood, Nancy Sack, Marianne Sack, Nanc Rhein, and Twila Marsh.

T. R. What will poor little Nell do now? (Nanc Rhein)

M. M. Hero (Jim Wislocki) falls into the clutches of the evil man-getter! (Nancy Sack)

Will our poor hero (Jim Wislocki) and his trusty friend (Sherri Underwood) be saved? Or will the nasty villain (Rose Wood) have his way!

BULL IN A CHINA SHOP

The play was about six elderly ladies, and a handsome detective. The ladies decided the only way to get this man to give them any attention, would be to start killing each other.

One of the cast members had this to say about the play: "The play was fun, sometimes confusing. It was special because it was the first play performed in the new auditorium, and because of the people involved. There were a few doubts, but in spite of those doubts, the show went on! And I'm glad I was there."

The cast consisted of: Rose and Stephanie Wood, Nancy Sack, Sharon Zahora, Sherri Underwood, Nanc Rhein, Kathy Clement, George Brewer, Bill McKee, Pat Darnell, Ron Miller, and Malcom Jones.

Rose Wood and Nancy Sack tell Sherri Underwood not to do that, in their own polite (?) way.

T. R. Mr. Rajchel, directs the play from the floor.

B. Malcom Jones, Ron Miller, Stephanie Wood, and Nancy Sack have a nice little chat.

I DIDN'T HAVE A THING TO WEAR

Ms. McMillen and Annie Rose talking it over.
 It's a high reach to get to the top.
 "Come on Rich Fisher, don't do that here."
 Backside view of the new school.
 Here lies the foundation of Hanover's students.

A new look at Hanover, to be proud of.
 Nick Mager has been be-headed by Robin Holeman.
 Barb Kazwell and Amy Miller look surprised.
 A classroom view of the new middle school.
 Hands and knees border the subject.

"Mr. Granger, you are so handsome!"

Making a basket from the front of the board is sometimes as hard as making it from the back.

Sue Stark and Don O'Masta show us how Basketball should be played. (co-ed)

New library makes studying pleasant.

Hanover's beautiful new swimming pool.
Joyce Cokenauer looks excited.
Jill Criley, Lillian Acree, and Temmy Landry show off their gymnastic ability.
Bus drivers look enthused while waiting to load up.
Linda York looks simply ravishing!

Renee Trueblood is ready to go.
 The diaper pins might come in handy for Cheryl Baker some day.
 Don O'Masta looks the beauties over.
 Mr. Schatzman and Mike Pasierb get excited at the wrestling match.
 The new building was under construction.

Cheryl Baker waiting for class to start.
 "Wait, let me comb my hair first!" says
 Dawn O'Masta.
 Joe Milburn and Sue Stark look just great together.
 "Mr. Whitestone, You're such a ham!"
 Bus drivers wait patiently for the bell to ring.

and contributing

Teachers at Hanover experienced many new happenings. During the 73-74 school year, teachers and students began relating more to one another. More participation resulted in the classrooms.

*"Don't push, I'm going," laughs Malcom Jones.
 Ron Zahora could care less about an Econ class.
 Even though basketball isn't that difficult, these kids make it seem that way.
 Pom Pon Corps tries to get it all together, as Hanover strives for a second victory . . .*

Miss Grady preps Volleyball team before a game. Well, some make it, and others don't. Students experience a first at Hanover, ordering their lunch.

Sue Hillger Prepares a very tasty meal. Fellow Seniors wait patiently to get their announcements. Bernie Reichert displays surprise. Rose Martin samples all the goodies. "If all the Home Ec. classes are as fun as this one," remarks Shelly Hudak; "I'm going to take it again next year." A Boone Grove exchange student enjoys French classes offered here. Light airy centerpieces provide background for a tablesetting.

Top Middle: Nobody needs to tell Roberta Torrence to smile.
Middle Left: "That wasn't exactly great" says Stan Michniewicz.
Top Right: Hanover's version of the Empire State Building—alive and well.
Middle Left: Tension mounts as Robin Holeman nears the finish line.
Middle Right: "Oh, so, that's how it's done," says Robin Ropp to Mr. Whitestone.
Bottom Right: Here are some girls that don't think football is stupid.

Clubs Sponsor Various Activities

Students in clubs kept busy this year as they were involved in many kinds of projects. During home basketball games the Letterman's Club sold refreshments. People in the Home Ec Club sold animal candles, as their way to raise money. Selling candles and a candle raffle helped raise money for the Spanish Club. The French and Spanish Clubs held their annual Christmas Party. The annual Journalism Banquet was held by Newspaper and Yearbook students.

In the beginning of the year, clubs met on Friday during Activity hour, and second semester, project and activity classes were set up. A few of the new activities were Gun Club, Weight Watchers, Rock Group, Volleyball, and Weightlifting-Conditioning.

J.V. BASEBALL

Our J.V. baseball team proved that hustle, teamwork and the desire to play build a successful team. They played as a team through the entire fall ball season. Though it was a quick season, it was a winning one. Some of the highlights of the season were the Scott Miller 6-0 nohitter, the extra inning loss to Beecher, and the 13-1 tromp on Boone Grove.

Coach Sparacino of the J.V. Baseball team had this to say about the team: "We were young and inexperienced, but with teamwork and a lot of hustle we won and showed great potential."

Cats Have 500 Season

Pursuit, drive, endurance and Victory sums up the 1973 Cross Country season. A satisfying 8-8 season proved the potential of our team. With four sophomores and two juniors, the considerably young team showed their full potential. Mr. Schuler, Cross Country coach, has this to say about the team: "I am looking forward to next year with everybody back, and hopefully improving our record. This is my first year of coaching for Hanover Central, and if all my seasons can come out as successful as this one, I will be glad to stay."

Mike Gross, Dirk Dodge, Robin Holeman, Nick Mager, Denny Schroeder, Mr. Schuler.

Successful Cats Have Good Season

—Cross Country, 7th and 8th grade, had a highly successful season. Our young Wildcats showed potential in this merciless sport which demands every inch of energy. Coach Sills said that he was very pleased with the team, and with a lot of practice and discipline, these boys will be even tougher.

The team had a 6-3 season with many great individual efforts. The 8th grade team had a record of 4-1, while the 7th grade compiles a 2-2 duel meet record. The 8th grade team also had a fine 4th place showing in the Taft Invitational, out of a ten team field.

Cross Country is a sport for the strong and enduring. If these boys will come out again, it will be a very successful year.

Varsity and J.V.'s Caught in Action

The Varsity and Reserve teams combined hustle, enthusiasm, and teamwork to finish with very respectable records.

Mr. Nicholas and the Varsity gung bowed out the 1974 season with an 8-12 record. The J.V.'s ended with 12-8 and the Porter County Tourney Championship. T-R. Cats show concern for upcoming game.

M-L. Soley fights for the ball.

M. "Dickie" Trivett shows hustle.

M-R. Andy Soley warms up.

B-L. Ray Kerstell shoots for 2.

B-R. Coach Roller gives pep talk.

T-L. Chris Avey starts his day with an unusual pre-game warmup in the new whirlpool bath.

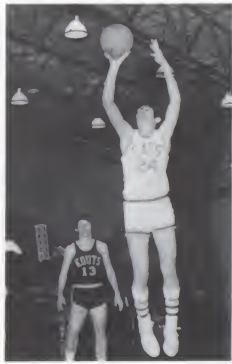

T-R. Al Davis leads the WILDCAT seniors to a thrilling Homecoming game.

M-L. Chris Creslak wonders the outcome of the game.

M-R. Don Jackson returns for the second half.

B-L. Dennis Kenning waits impatiently.

B-R. Tim Neary chalks up 2 more for Hanover.

Freshman Forever Fighting

Top Left: Coach Sparacino; P. Schiessle, J. Hollar, J. Jones, D.B. Jackson, T. O'Conner, G. Steuer; M.R.: C. Grant, J. Endris, D. Jackson, C. Shropshire, S. Anderson; B.R.: G. Plant, A. Foreman, M. Shanks, R. Jubera, J. Anderson, J. Yohtment.

Freshman basketball for this year was something of a folly with having approximately 8-10 fans crowding into the gym every game. A team cannot play up to their potential without enthusiasm from fans, which was proven even more when the Cats got a 2-15 seasonal record.

Coach Sparacino had this to say, "Our team was not all that bad they played as a team, having no big guns. One thing I was really put out with was the fans. There is an old saying that goes, "If the fans are too quiet at a basketball game, you can hear a ball bounce. At Hanover, you can hear the boys breathing."

Mixed emotions derived from basketball game.

7th & 8th Strive for Victory

A great turn-out of 18 boys greeted Mr. Shuler in his first year of coaching. The boys, practicing almost every night, came up with the sparks Hanover needed. The boys had a 3-15 season, losing 6 games by a total of only 15 points. If "Lady Luck" could have been with the boys this year, they could easily have been 9-9. But that was a big "If" and unfortunately it didn't happen.

The coach of the 8th grade team is Mr. Mike Shuler. This is Mr. Shuler's first year at Hanover with the boys giving him the respect which he deserves from the players.

Good participation from the fans helped the boys considerably. The 8th grade players should be an outstanding team in the years to come.

Top Left: Coach Apple; S. Seils, J. Cochran, J. Perrin, K. Neaves, J. Lawrence, J. Underwood; M.R.: C. Smith, J. Dunker, D. Korthauer, D. Mantel, J. Wittergren, T. Cox; B.R.: M. Odea, R. Partain, J. Stark, W. Pemperton, G. Moehlman, S. Watson. Not Pic., T. Teets, E. Shroka, D. Hays.

If team records for a team were based on hustle, the desire to win, and enthusiasm, the 7th grade Wildcats would have ended the season 18-0, with the desire to win no matter how far behind or ahead they were.

The team-leading players were Wes Pemperton and Joe Stark, the two Cat playmakers. At center is Steve Seils, the leading rebounder, and top scorer on the team. Holding up the front line were Dan Korthauer and Dan Mantel, 2 hustlers from the word "Go".

Coach Phil Apple commented on his team, "I'd say being only 7th graders, they were always hustling through the entire season. With a lot of practice and discipline these boys should be exceptional."

Cheerleaders, Charge Up Season

To meet the qualifications of a "Cheerleader," a girl must be courteous, spirited, and constantly striving for victory. The 7th and 8th grade cheerleaders did just that, and even more, they made the game more enjoyable to attend. Cheerleaders for this year had to do something that is very hard to do—cheer and try to make spirit even when their team is being blown off the court. The cheerleaders for this year were wisely chosen. The girls met all the qualifications and more. While these girls are still very inexperienced in the field of cheerleading, the girls did a very exceptional job.

Powder Puff Cheerleaders Promote Spirit

To help promote, spirit, the annual Powder Puff Football game was played. Promoting even more spirit were the Powder Puff cheerleaders. The hairy chinned boys contributed to make the game a huge success. The game was played on the coldest day possible there is in history (November 10, 1974). The cheering boys found out that cheerleading wasn't all that easy. But they did their best

Cheerleaders attend camp competition

Varsity Cheerleaders Practiced and learned during the summer at the Smith-Walbridge Cheerleading Camp. The Camp is sponsored at Syracuse, Indiana by the National Cheerleading Association.

The girls worked to improve cheers and jumping techniques. Skits were done among the girls and each of Hanover's groups participated in competition.

Groups were judged for the awards on a daily basis. Participation, technique, and ability were taken into account. Awards were given each day: Varsity won an honorable mention; outstanding; excellent; and superior. Junior Varsity received an honorable mention; outstanding and an excellent awards.

Homecoming '74 had an excellent choice of homecoming queen candidates. They were Donna Hays, Homecoming Queen; Sue Nagy, Cindy Clinton, and Vickie Neitzel. The Queen's court consisted of Junior Cindy Seils, Sophomore Donna Engle, and Freshmen Joy Reed.

Tension mounted, as halftime of the Varsity game drew nearer. The question everyone had in mind was, who will be crowned Homecoming Queen of 1974? The crowning took place at half time of the Varsity and Junior Varsity game.

Cats For Victory

Steve Plant anticipates signal.

To be able to succeed in wrestling, a team must consist of three things: experience, teamwork, and discipline. Unfortunately, we lacked in one of these departments—experience. Our team consists of 5 freshmen, 5 sophomores, 3 juniors, and 2 seniors; a considerably young team.

Steve Plant once said this about wrestling, "The first year you learn the moves, the second year you do the moves, and the third year you win."

The coach of Varsity Wrestling is Mr. Tom Schatzman, a small, but very powerful young man. Before coming to Hanover Central, he was a coach at Winchester High for two years. J.V. coach for Hanover wrestling is Mr. Jim Kiechle. He had five years experience as a coach of wrestling for Hanover.

With a year's experience behind our young team, next year they will have had the knowledge of the sport that is needed to wrestle. If the old saying, "Experience is the best teacher," is true, our team should be much better next year.

CATS SWING INTO ACTION

This year's Junior Varsity Baseball team had many outstanding players and coaches. We started to move on the first game with an easy victory, and from then on it was smooth sailing all the way. The team consisted of mostly freshmen, 3 sophomores, and 3 juniors. The coach of the J.V. team was Mr. Ron Roller, with his snowing of sportmanship and teamwork the team was outstanding.

Coach Roller had this to say about the team, "Our team was very disciplined, they wanted to play, and they gave 100% every minute. There were no big guns on the team, every man on the team played as a team. This will help the varsity team in the years to come."

Standing L-R, S. Miller, B. Jonason, J. Yothment, R. Kerstel, D. Engle, B. Garret, C. Loman, M. Stecyk, Mr. Sparacino. Kneeting, C. Ceislak, A. Davis, R. Korthauer, J. Johnson, Managers: S. Eastling, D. Doty.

J. V. BASEBALL

This year's varsity baseball team was full of thrills and excitement. The former coach Mr. Charles Rawlings resigned, thereby, Mr. Joe Sparacino took over the job. The team took to the liking of Mr. Sparacino and came up with a winning season.

Coach Sparacino had this to say about the team, "If any team was going to win sectionals for Hanover this year, it is going to be this one. We had many returning lettermen, and many outstanding players. We have fine pitching and hitting, and we also have the right attitude, the will to win."

Standing L-R, J. Yothment, T. Swafford, C. Monos, E. Forgarty, J. Wilburn, Mr. Roller, R. Jubera, D. Bizeuman. Managers: M. L. Anderson, S. Marine.

CATS RUN TO VICTORY

Standing L-R, M. Callison, C. Juhera, D. Dodge, T. O'Connor, L. Frazee, R. Holeman, M. Malowski, J. Yothment, M. Gross, D. Dodge, Mr. Shuler. Kneeling, A. Gold, D. Dodge, K. McKinley, R. Juhera, J. Endris.

To have a really tough track team you need three things, 1) experience, 2) strength, 3) speed. Unfortunately we lacked in just one of these departments, experience. Our team consisted of mostly freshmen and sophomores, 3 juniors, and 1 senior. To prove the true potential of the team, they won the P.C.C. freshmen, sophomore tournament.

Coach Shuler had this to say about the team, "We are very young and rusty, we will have to have more drive in the boys if we are to succeed in our goals."

JR. HIGH TRACK HAS DRIVE

The junior high track team had something that very few other teams have, drive. Many meets were won by that little extra drive that the boys gave out. The boys consistently broke or tied records, some which were very impressive. The boys were tough in all the events, especially the dashes and field events. The coach of the team is Mr. Sills. With his knowledge of the sport and the team's determination, the boys turned out an impressive season.

Some of the boys came out for their first year of track, and proved that track can be fun and also very demanding. If these boys can keep it up in track, Hanover will have a tough track team.

the 1990s, the number of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia has increased in the UK (Meltzer 1997).

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the lives of people with mental health problems, and the importance of the role of the community in this. The UK government has set out a vision for the future of mental health care in the 1990s, and has set out a number of key principles for the development of mental health services (Department of Health 1994). These principles include the need to ensure that people with mental health problems are treated as individuals, and that their views are taken into account in the development of services.
